

Join us on Monday, June 29th, 7 - 8:30 pm at The Schoenbaum Family Center at Weinland Park, 175 East 7th Avenue, Columbus Ohio 43201

The Fifth Monday Series

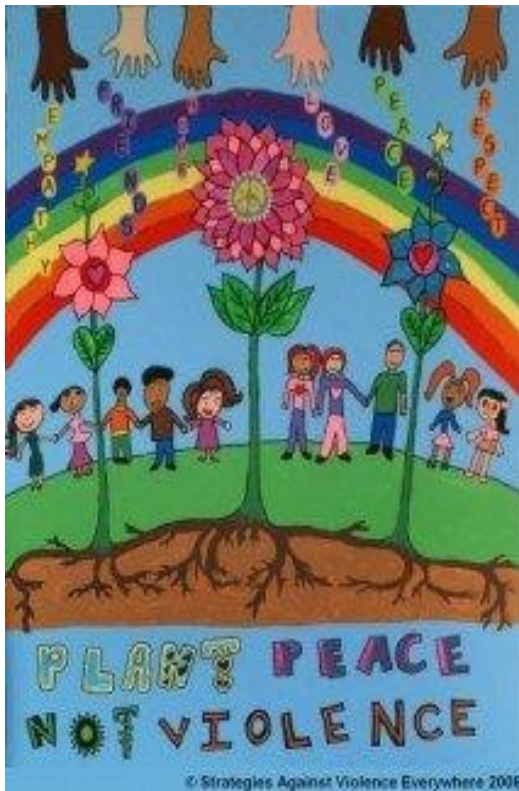

Understanding and Preventing Urban Youth Violence: Lessons from Youth Involved in Violence

A Community Forum Sponsored by:
The University District Organization

A presentation by Deanna L. Wilkinson, PhD, Associate Professor, College of Education and Human Ecology, Department of Human Development and Family Science

Email: Wilkinson.110@osu.edu

Webpage: <http://people.ehe.ohio-state.edu/dwilkinson>

Art by After School Program Students at Cassady Elementary in Columbus, Ohio

Listen to Dr. Wilkinson discuss her research on youth violence. Learn key facts about its seriousness, patterns and consequences. Learn about how the family, institutions, neighborhoods, peers, poverty and the labor market affect youth violence. Learn what is being done in Columbus and how we can help prevent youth violence in our community.

For more information, please visit www.universitydistrict.org or call UDO at 614.294.5113